1 Cowtown Rodeo's Review

For one of the most entertaining attractions, May to September, in southern New Jersey look to Grant Harris and his family's famous Saturday night Rodeo at Cowtown – the longest running rodeo in the country. It's almost impossible to put into words the excitement and energy that comes from the rodeo. From the numerous events such as team penning, roping, riding and racing to the roars and cheers of the crowd, friendly vendors and courteous staff. Cowtown provides strong family entertainment and lasting memories. With any good family festival comes good food and we recommend "Katie's Chuck Wagon Chili," which has a great taste and is gas forgiving. Add to it some nachos and cheese and you're doing even better. Even though the rodeo takes place in the evening, come early to experience the unparalleled Flea Market, which is open Tuesdays and Saturdays year around 780 Rt 40 Pillesgrove, NJ (856) 769-3200

2 Deeks Deli

Welcome to Deek's Deli and Kustard Kitchen, or what the congenial owner likes to refer to as "Mother Marcia s Place." Whether you are a customer or an employee, when you come in she treats you like family. Deek's Deli offers a full food menu including freshly cut and made to order cold sandwiches and a variety of satisfying hot sandwiches, all of which can be delivered. She has the best roast beef and roasted peppers sandwiches in South Jersey. In addition, at the Kustard Kitchen patrons can get Hershey's hand-dipped hard ice-cream or rich and thick soft-serve custard with all the great taste and none of the air. What's more of a treat is that this year Marcia s added a new device to her vanilla soft serve machine that will add in a selection of cookies and candies to create the "Crunchi-Cream" delicacy. Like any nurturing mother, she also bakes fresh cookies and prepares ice-cream cakes that are a big hit with the kids at birthday parties 1370 So. Main Rd (Magnolia) Vineland, NJ (856) 691-5438

6 Papa Luigi's of Woodstown

39 North Main Street Woodstown, NJ (856) 769-4455

6 Papa Luigi's of Elmer

We just moved to the quiet country town of Elmer and wondered if we were going to have to travel 30 minutes for a good Italian restaurant. Boy were we surprised to discover that nestled within the 1 square mile limits of Elmer, right off Route 40, was a terrific Italian restaurant and pizzeria called Papa Luigi's. After one visit (and trust me we've been back many times since), we right away knew that Louie and his staff make some of the best pizzas and pizza specialties in South Jersey. Eating their hot and cold subs is like going directly to the Italian Market in South Philly. Their entrées are equally enjoyable. We started off with their homemade calamari and fresh warm garlic bread, followed by a cold, crisp salad for me and a delicious homemade soup of the day for my husband. We tried their tender Veal Marsala served with a side of pasta with Louis's own Vodka sauce - yummy. When the time comes to settle the bill, you would expect it to be higher, but in actuality you are receiving high quality food for a reasonable family price. So come in and meet Louie and his pleasant and attentive staff, where no more will you have to pay for parking, tolls or high prices for a great Italian dinner with the family. South Philly has come to South Jersey at Papa Luigi's in Elmer. 119 North Main Street Elmer, NJ (856) 358-4774
